1. INTRODUCTION

The time in which we live no longer suffers from a lack of information, on the contrary, people are "bombarded" from all sides with a host of data. The right selection of what we need, requires the ability to correctly understand and analyze information.

The cultural-educational show Appraisal aims to take a leading and orienting role, not only to reflect an objective reality, but also to create reality.

The media coverage of Islam today is distorted and misrepresented, and when we also know that most people get their primary information on religion, and about beliefs through the media, then the impact of these shows will play a constructive role in the debate. social in terms of Islam, faith, woman, family and society.

This show will reflect the quality of topics and information that affect areas such as economics, politics or culture, and that directly affect the creation of public opinion on current developments or basic social problems, so the need for educational-cultural shows VERSUS turns into a necessity.

2. THE CORPUS OF TOPICS THAT THIS SHOW WILL COVER WILL INCLUDE

All social groups, men and women, young and old, with different social, economic and religious statuses.

4. THE GOALS OF THIS ACTIVITY WERE

- Address discussion points affecting Women's issues from a variety of social areas, including sociological, psychological, religious, economic and political.
- Arouse interest and knowledge for the Woman to be more active in the society where she lives to contribute to herself, family and others.
- To take a leading and orienting role, not only to reflect an objective reality, but also to create reality".
- An effort to improve or meet the standard of social excellence in the light of Islamic values.

5. THE RESULTS ACHIEVED

- It is a project that followed online by 15,000 followers
- It happens that the lectures reach up to 800 followers online
- Lack of this type of lectures in our spaces.
- Creating a Space that will be the voice of Muslim women in society.
- Fighting stereotypes about Muslim women and presenting them in the true light, as free, intellectually and productively advanced citizens of their countries
- Raising awareness of issues related to women in our society as well as around the world.
- Emphasizing the importance of the family and family values, good parenting, and addressing the challenges facing families in our time.
- We will be in trend with the needs of the time

Provide education and knowledge at a time when the movements of people in society are minimized.
